KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

What can I do when ICE is inside my home?

If you or a loved one could be at risk of an ICE arrest, speak to an attorney for individualized advice.

REMEMBER

Sometimes ICE tricks people into letting them into letting them into their homes before they realize it is ICE

If ICE agents are in your home or touch your belongings, say:

"I do not consent to you being inside. Please leave."

If ICE agents ask for your passport or identity documents, say:

"I don't want to bring my documents." or "I don't want to give you anything."

Repeat these phrases, even if you let them in, if they ignore you, or if they try to take your belongings.

REMEMBER

ICE agents try to pressure a person into telling them where to find their loved ones

You do not have to answer any questions!

Repeat these phrases:

"I don't want to talk to you."

"I don't want to answer questions."

"Please leave."

If you or a loved one could be at risk of an ICE arrest, speak to an attorney for individualized advice.

WHO'S AT RISK OF AN ICE ARREST? THE LAW ALLOWS THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO DEPORT:

Anyone without lawful immigration status, including a person who:

- entered without status
- overstayed a visa
- has a final order of removal

Anyone with lawful status with certain criminal convictions, including:

- Lawful permanent residents/green card holders
- Refugees and asylees
- Visa holders

ICE decides who to arrest and deport.

BE AWARE

If you have legal status in the U.S. and prior criminal convictions, you could be at risk, even if:

- Your conviction is from years ago;
- You didn't serve time in jail
- Your case was a minor or a misdemeanor
- You've had your green card for a long time
- Your family members are U.S. citizens

 If you or a loved one could be at risk of an ICE arrest, speak to an attorney for individualized advice.
